Established in 1994, TeksMed Services Inc. is a leading disability and claims management firm, offering employers across Canada a complete solution to workplace injury and short-term disability claim management. Our team of experts have devised processes and methods that effectively reduce wage loss and claim costs by helping ill and injured workers maximize their work potential. We focus on ability, not disability, provide fast, world-class health care, and assist in establishing an early and safe return to work.

TeksMed is currently looking to fill an opening within our eastern disability management department, based in Toronto, Ontario (North York). This is a full-time position for a Return to Work Coordinator (RTWC) who will directly report to the Management Team. We are looking for a motivated, self-starter with a strong work ethic, integrity and drive. This position requires excellent communication skills and the capacity to flourish in a fast paced, ever changing environment.

Key responsibilities surround the ongoing management of workers' compensation claims for our clients and maintaining and developing client relationships by providing exceptional service. The role focuses on facilitating and promoting an early and safe return-to-work for our clients' employees. This is facilitated through obtaining and reviewing objective medical information, overseeing modified work programs and utilizing our proven expedited health care strategies.

RTWCs will communicate with key client contacts, employees and health care providers in order to facilitate and manage return-to-work planning. In conjunction with return-to-work planning, RTWCs will monitor claims for areas of objection and then submit objections/appeals to the provincial compensation board or liaise with an in-house paralegal as appropriate.

If you think you have what it takes to join our team, a potential career opportunity awaits you!
